A fortune in prizes, offered in nection with regular exhibits, and number of special prizes offered a ducements to the people of Kent to put the very best of their prod-on display at the coming Kentucky State Fair, is having the effect of interesting exhibitors to an extent not before known this early in advance. But, aside from the actual money to be obtained, there is that about the preparations for the coming month's exhibition which carries confidence with it.

when coupled with all the wild make up the magnificent show to be held for one week in September, beginning on Monday, the 11th, and ending at midnight Saturday, the 18th. It will provide an array of feature films to tempt the interest and attract the attention of any one seeking instruction, entertainment and agricultural and technical uplift.

Another feature which will appeal to the women, as well as the men in the poultry department. This industry has progressed wonderfully, even the past year, and to-day those of Kentucky and Southern Indiana, are giving time and money to the raising of wonderfully impressive numbers in the poultry line, are numbered by the thousands.

Then there is the Field, Seed Grain department. The husband who provides the food which sustains the greatest nation of the earth be in his element when he reaches department next September as

The state has been divided into three districts for the purposes of corn show and the prizes will be awarded on a district basis. Then, to the climax, there will be a grand sweepstakes prize, which will enable the boys from some sections of the county to return home after September 16 next, proudly bearing the trophy which will be a fine tribute to their skill and industry.

In connection with the Field, S and Grahn, Poultry and Women's departments, respectively, Secretary calls attention to the fact that closing dates for entries, which will strictly adhered to, are as follows:

Women's department, Saturday, September 2; Field, Seed and Grain, Monday, September 4, and Poultry, Tuesday, September 7.

"I want you to understand distinctly, though," he said to the
"that I'm not the doctor."

On the occasion of a trial right there, however, the natives, having heard from Copenhagen in meantime, gave him the shakedown of the doubt and smashed him.

Fire starting between the third

Hotel, crowded with convention delegates and Old Fellows, at 1 o'clock this morning, created a panic among the guests, who fled from the hotel in wild disorder. The blaze, due to a defective fuse, entailed an estimated loss of $1,500.

tion in the morning at the Pres-expenses and taxes they added a nice amount to their Undivid-

Picnic.
There will be held at Cecil's Groves on Saturday, August 5th, by the St. Rose congregation a Picnic.

It has been several years since people of St. Rose have had equals former picnics at St. Rose it will be a great place for entertainment of old and young.

H. W. D. Claybrook, the Secretary of the Washington County Fair Association is making a very efficient effort in

Mad Dog.
On last Friday afternoon a dog owned by Mr. J. B. Williams, who lives near Mooreville went mad and after biting Mr. Williams, started through the country and when next heard of was in Springfield, on Sunday evening, when it attacked Mrs. R. C.
Bohltz. She, in company with her daughter who just returning home, when the dog attacked Mrs. Bohltz, who with much difficulty prevented the animal from biting her. It tore her clothing in several places and attempted to seize her in the throat. However, she succeeded in preventing the biting her until she had gotten into the house and closed the door behind her. During the whole time she was screaming, but did not succeed in attracting the attention of any one until she reached the telephone and called her husband, who arrived upon the scene in a few minutes with a pistol and shot the dog as he was coming out of his yard.
This seems to be a fatal year for the disease among dogs and it behooves everyone to take care to prevent their dogs being bitten in order that they may be checked.

This town has practically been rid of dogs, and Marshal Grace advises that all persons who wish to keep their dogs to see that they are not allowed to come to town.

Devion-Rose.
Word has just been received here of the marriage in Hendersonville, N. C. on July 5th of Mrs.
Ada S. Devion to Dr. J. Leon Rose. This information will be of interest to many people here as Mrs. Devion is well known and lived here up until the spring of this year, when she moved to Hendersonville. Dr. Rose is also known to quite a number of our people as he is a former Kentuckian and lived up until a short time ago at Junction City. He is now a leading druggist of Hendersonville.

Death of Mrs. Bush.
Mrs. Ruby Wright Bush died here on last Friday morning after an illness of about a year. Mrs.
Bush was, prior to her marriage a Miss Wright, and was a native of Terre Haute Ind. She was born October 9th, 1861, and was married to Mr. R. Lynne Bush July 12, 1900. Shortly after their marriage she came with her husband to this city and during her life here she made many friends, and was highly regarded by all, being in manner gentle and amiable, seeking the good will of every one.

Her life was beautiful as it was brief, and she will be much missed by the many close friends she had made during her brief life here.

Funeral services were conducted at the Baptist Church Saturday by Rev. W. H. Williams as assisted by Rev. E. C. Lawson and Rev. W. A. Wolfe. Interment was in Cemetery Hill.

PERSONAL
Kentucky Game and Fish Nearly All Gone.

Unless something is done in the near future to prevent the wholesale destruction of fish and game in a few seasons, Kentucky fields will be bare of birds, and streams without fish. Even now there is but little use for the gun or pole and line, and the scarcity of game and fish is a constant in testimony to violation of law in the shooting of game out of season and in the use of dynamite and seines.

Two things are necessary for preservation of the game and fish. One of these is the protection of the game now existing and the other is the stocking of streams and fields by means of fish hatcheries and game preserves.

The killing off of the game is a result of the protection against game laws, based on the belief that game laws were advocated solely for the benefit of city hunters, but the people now realize that good game laws are for the benefit of everybody.

The Kentucky Fish and Game Protective Association is now trying to get every hunter and fisherman in the State interested in the passage of better laws along this line. One of its plans is for the State to charge a license of one dollar per year to every man who hunts on other men's land, and to charge non-residents of Kentucky at least ten dollars per year for hunting in this State. Similar laws are now and have for years past been in force in every State in the Union except Kentucky and about three other States.

Under such a law a sufficient fund could be raised to employ men to see that the fish and game laws are enforced, and to provide stocks of fish and game for the State. Of course, if a man doesn't care a dollar's worth about hunting he wouldn't have to have a license, and the burden would fall on those who would be glad to pay so small a sum for so much pleasure.

One of the big benefits to be derived by the farmers would be the enforcement of the posting laws and keeping trespassers off of their lands. Under the present conditions, a great many farmers allow themselves to be imposed upon rather than to drive hunters away, but a paid game warden would have no such feelings in the matter.

In order to make the employment of wardens non-political, it is proposed to put the employment of the wardens under the supervision of a non-partisan commission of four, two to be selected by the Senate and two by the House of Representatives who shall serve without compensation except for necessary expenses.

The 1911 Tobacco
It is estimated that there will be a reduction of about 15 per cent in the tobacco crop of the United States in 1911 as compared with the production of 1910. Throughout the country there was much hot, dry weather in the month of May, which was not favorable to the growth of the plants in the beds and which made it impossible to transplant, in the Ohio Valley the crop is from two to three weeks late. In the Bluegrass region, the Burley district, there has been a reduction in acreage consequent upon the unsatisfactory selling conditions that have prevailed. In the Black Patch the reports are well nigh unanimous to the effect that the crop will not be so large as last year. Estimates indicate that Kentucky has planted 282,751 acres in tobacco this year, as compared with a harvested area last year amounting to 275,900 acres.

POOR BEGGAR'S LIFE
Makes Study of Vagrant and Becomes One Himself.
Albert Clutterbuck, Charged With Begging, Is Sent to Prison—Writes Book on Methods of Mendic-ants He Lived With.
London.—A document entitled "The Life of a Beggar" was written in an effort by Albert Clutterbuck, aged 23, who was charged with begging at Marylebone police court.
Parts of this, based on what the man heard and saw while living in a common lodging house, were read aloud by Mr. Paul Taylor, the magistrate, who described the document as "most interesting."
"Of course most of you have heard or know of Notting Dale, the home of beggars. When a baby is born in this noted district and gets to five or seven years of age, it is taken out with its mother and father and taught the way to beg. Its mother takes it in her arms and goes and molests ladies and gentlemen for means to buy the child some bread. Their bread means life, and most people know that, but they give to them to get rid of them." In this way for about six years, it is sent out with about six pairs of lace, or a few matches, and with these it continually molests ladies and gentlemen and asks them to buy or give a few coppers. It keeps going out with these until about 16 or 17, and then leaves home to get married. By that time they know where to buy their stock of forks, knives, lace and matches, and where to borrow babies, etc.
A description followed of the beggars' homes and their weekly "tests," and the document then went on to describe the beggars' summer holiday, which, it said, was the only time when the beggar did any work. They "went on the road" to Kent, begging for the week, and after working for three or four weeks at field picking they drew their money, spent it at the nearest public house, and after wards got a job at odd picking with their children. This over, they had a good drink of beer and walked home to their dens in Notting Dale, where they spent the few shillings they had left with their children. As for buying new clothes with it, you might as well ask a brick wall to get out of your way."
In sentencing the man to five days' imprisonment, the magistrate said that Clutterbuck had apparently made such a study of vagrant life that he had become a vagrant himself.
